

Attractions Included In Your Pass

PRAGUE CASTLE

The symbol of the Czech state has been the most important Czech landmark for ages; Prague Castle is also one of the country's leading cultural institutions. The largest castle complex in the world, Prague Castle covers an area of nearly 70,000 m².

OLD ROYAL PALACE

The historical central part of the south wing of Prague Castle was the home to Czech princes and kings between the 10th

ST. GEORGE'S BASILICA AND CONVENT

The basilica was founded in 920 as the second Christian church in the Prague area and later became part of the

GOLDEN LANE

Golden Lane is situated between the Hradčany walls and the Old House of the Supreme Burgrave. Inhabited until the

ST. VITUS CATHEDRAL

The dominant building in the Prague Castle complex and the seat of the Prague archbishop, St. Vitus is a three-aisled

The Vladislav Hall

From the 16th century the Vladislav Hall served particularly royal state purposes. It was the scene of coronation festivities and banquets, knights' tournaments and markets with artistic and luxurious goods. The Vladislav Hall still partly fulfils the state function: the elections of the president of the Czech Republic and ceremonial gatherings connected with important days in the life of this country take place in it.

THE JEWISH MUSEUM IN PRAGUE

Founded in 1906, the Jewish Museum in Prague is consistently the most visited museum in the whole of the Czech Republic. Its sites are located in the preserved area of the former Jewish Town in the historic centre of Prague, which is on UNESCO's World Heritage List ...

The Maisel Synagogue

The Maisel Synagogue was built in 1590 – 1592 by the Mayor of the Jewish Town, Mordechai Maisel, who funded the extensive Renaissance reconstruction of the ghetto. The builders of this synagogue were Josef Wahl and Juda Goldsmied de Herz.

The Spanish Synagogue

The Spanish Synagogue was built in 1868 on the site of the oldest Prague Jewish house of prayer ("the Old Shul"). It

The Pinkas Synagogue

The present building is the work of the Horowitz family. In 1535 Aaron Meshullam Horowitz had it built between his

The Old Jewish Cemetery

The Old Jewish Cemetery was established in the first half of the 15th century. Along with the Old–New Synagogue, it is

The Klausen Synagogue

The Klausen Synagogue is located by the entrance to the Old Jewish Cemetery. It takes its name from the German word

Ceremonial Hall

The building housing the former Ceremonial Hall and mortuary of the Old Jewish Cemetery was built in a pseudo-Romanesque style in 1911 – 1912 to a design by architect J. Gerst

SIGHTSEEING TOUR WITH COMMENTARY

PRAGUE CITY PASS holders receive a free guided bus tour of approximately 45 minutes in length through the centre

CRUISE THROUGH PRAGUE WITH COMMENTARY

A romantic sightseeing cruise is a unique way to see the beauty of Prague and to appreciate the comfort of transport without having to wait at zebra crossings or walking in the heat of summer. Boats have been cruising on the Vltava for over 140 years and you get the great opportunity to experience the way people used to travel years ago.